About Auction 4 Audiology

The AAAF's Auction 4 Audiology is an annual auction that raises funds to help advance the Foundation's mission to promote philanthropy in support of research, education, and public awareness in audiology and hearing and balance sciences.

The auction is an important fundraiser for the Foundation and will launch in conjunction with the American Academy of Audiology's annual convention, AAA 2018, which is being held on April 18-21, 2018 in beautiful Nashville, TN (pictured above).

Please note: Winners are responsible for the cost of shipping their items so lightweight items are typically the most popular. We ask that you consider this when choosing items to donate but please know, we truly appreciate all donations, no matter the size.

Thank you!

Questions? Please contact Rissa Duque-Yangson at 703-226-1049 or ryangson@audiology.org

This is a fun way to help support the mission of the American Academy of Audiology Foundation (AAAF). Donate new items to be auctioned off during Auction 4 Audiology and watch how much money it brings in for your favorite Foundation!

The AAAF welcomes your kind donation of new items such as electronics, restaurant/store gift cards*, professional services, outings and getaways, special event tickets, jewelry and unique apparel, home decor and collectables, sports and celebrity memorabilia, in addition to audiology-related specialty products, and more! *Please note that for donated gift cards, we request an accompanying activation receipt.
